THE SHORT VERSION

The site tells one offer clearly. A few plan pages and fee details need to catch up.

The banner, offer line and popup match on all 25 pages we read, the main headings are doing their job, and the fee guide, cost calculator, pet policy and qualifications are all published. The priority is the detail underneath: the starting one bedroom rent sits on a home available after the move by date, three B1 homes are left out of part of an offer marked valid on all homes, four plan pages list A1 homes, the pet breed lists differ, and the fee guide and cost estimate do not line up with other pages. No fix changes a working H1. The only H2 lines involved are the offer text in F1 and the two video tour labels in F14.

Keep these main headings as they are. They read clearly and the pages are earning search visibility: Home page, /floorplans, /rentalqualifications, /amenities, /photogallery, /floorplans/one-bedroom-penthouse, /mapsanddirections.

WHAT IS WORKING

One special, shown the same on every page

The banner, offer line and popup carry the same offer on all 25 pages, and plan pages repeat the two months free wording per home (three B1 homes differ, see F1)

A published fee guide and cost calculator

Internet $90, amenity $85, trash $25, application fee $75, pet fee $500 and pet rent $50 are listed with one time and monthly labels, plan cards show a total monthly price, and each available home opens a cost estimate

Clear plan facts

Each plan card shows beds, baths, square feet, a starting price and the $500 deposit. The five plans with homes available also show base rent and an availability date

A detailed pet policy

Pet rent, pet fee, three pet limit, no weight restriction and a screening partner are all stated

FIX NOW

5 fixes renters can see today

F1 Property team

The starting 1 bedroom rent belongs to a home that shows available after the offer's move by date

Home page · /floorplans · /floorplans/a3-one-bedroom · /floorplans/b1-two-bedroom

WHAT NEEDS TO CHANGE

The $1,475 figure is correct math for the A3 base rent of $1,770, but the only A3 home shows 1/4/2027, after the 11/25 move by date. The 1 bedroom plans that show a date before 11/25 are A7 (card: base rent $1,920, available from 11/13/2026), A1 (home 529: base rent $1,850, 11/22/2026) and the One Bedroom Penthouse (base rent $3,195, available now). The same math on A1 home 529 comes to about $1,542. The $2,100 figure fits B1 homes at $2,520, which show available now. Separately, the popup says the offer is valid on all homes, while the three B1 homes at that $2,520 rent are marked as not eligible for the Look and Lease part. A renter who reads $1,475 and the 11/25 date together finds no home on the site that fits both.

READY TO PASTE

Starting Rents With 2 Months Free Applied Over 12 Month Lease: (your team confirms the 1 bedroom starting figure for homes available by the move by date) = 1 Bed / 1 Bath Homes $2,100 = 2 Bed / 2 Bath Homes. 2 Months Free on All Homes, Look & Lease Savings on Select Homes (your team confirms). Must Move By (your team confirms the date).

F2 RentCafe or developer

Four plan pages list homes that belong to the A1 plan

/floorplans/a4-one-bedroom · /floorplans/a5-one-bedroom · /floorplans/two-bedroom-penthouse · /floorplans/c2-three-bedroom

WHAT NEEDS TO CHANGE

On /floorplans, A4, A5, Two Bedroom Penthouse and C2 show Get Notified with no available homes (starting at $2,095, $1,880, $4,000 and $3,515). Their own pages show three one bedroom homes, starting at $2,050, which are the A1 homes (the video tours page lists Home 408 as A1). A renter looking at the three bedroom plan sees a one bedroom home and a price that does not match the plan.

READY TO PASTE

For plans with no available homes, show only the Get Notified message and the plan starting price. Each plan page should list only homes of that plan.

F3 Property team

Two pet breed lists that do not match

/amenities · /rentalqualifications

WHAT NEEDS TO CHANGE

Dalmatian, Great Dane, Mastiff and Staffordshire Terrier appear only on the amenities page. Presa Canaria and Siberian Husky appear only on the qualifications page. Pet rent ($50) and pet fee ($500) match across both pages and the fee guide, and the three pet limit matches on both pages. A pet owner can get two different answers about the same dog.

READY TO PASTE

Use one list on both pages: (your team confirms the current breed list). Keep each page's sentence about management's discretion.

F4 RentCafe or developer

The fee guide does not list the administrative fee shown on two other pages

/feeoverview · /rentalqualifications · /preferredemployer · /rentestimate/b1-two-bedroom

WHAT NEEDS TO CHANGE

The qualifications page and the cost estimate both show a $300 administrative fee, and the $375 credit equals the $75 and $300 fees together, but the fee guide leaves it out. The guide says it lists all costs, so a required $300 fee missing there is a surprise at application.

READY TO PASTE

Add to the fee guide under Essential Costs: Administrative Fee, (amount confirmed by the property team; the qualifications page and cost estimate show $300), Per Unit, One Time.

F5 RentCafe or developer

The cost estimate adds $50 pet rent before a renter chooses a pet

/floorplans/a1-one-bedroom · /rentestimate/a1-one-bedroom · /rentestimate/b1-two-bedroom

WHAT IT SAYS NOW

> A1 home 529 plan page: "Starting at: $2,050 Base rent $1,850". Cost estimate for the same home: "Total Monthly Leasing Price" $2,100, with "Pet Rent" $50 "Per Pet" in the monthly list. B1 home 448: plan page $2,720, cost estimate $2,770, same $50 line.

WHAT NEEDS TO CHANGE

Opening the estimate from a plan page, with nothing selected, shows a total $50 higher than the plan page. The difference is the pet rent line. A renter with no pet sees two different monthly totals for the same home.

READY TO PASTE

Start the cost estimate with no pets selected, so the opening total matches the plan page: $2,050 for A1 home 529 and $2,720 for B1 home 448, at today's listed rents.
